PASSOVER WILL BEGIN TODAY WITH SUNDOWN

Jewish Congregations of Washington Will Start Week of Festivities With Services This Evening.

Brief services in the Jewish temples of the city at sundown today will usher in the season of the Passover, or Pesach, which will close next Monday at the same hour for the reform Hebrews, and the following day for the orthodox. The season commemorates the exodus of the Hebrews from Egypt after bondage.

These services will be of short duration, in order to allow the families to gather in their homes for the "seder" service, which is found in the book called the Hagadah. It contains the story of the exodus of the Jews from Egypt, various songs appropriate to the occasion and a number of psalms.

In the Eighth Street Temple the service today will be at 6 o'clock, while at Adath Israel and other orthodox temples 6:30 o'clock will be the hour. Dr. Simon will deliver a short address at the Eighth Street Temple, while Rev. A. Shefferman will officiate at Adath Israel. At this latter temple Rabbi Grossman will make the subject for a discourse, "An Old Question and a Modern Solution" tomorrow morning, while Dr. Simon will preach in the Eighth Street Temple at the same time on "Under His Own Vine and Fig Tree."

Liberty Keynote of Festival.

Liberty is the keynote of the Passover festival, the spirit of which is interpreted in the synagogue by a special liturgy adapted for the feast. In the home certain symbolic and unique ceremonies are held. Matzos or unleavened bread is used throughout the feast, it symbolizing the hasty departure from Egypt, such bread having been prepared in haste and therefore called "the bread of affliction."

PIER TO BE IMPROVED.

Plans at Winthrop, Md., Provide for Extension to Deep Water.

According to reports, the pier at Winthrop, Md., where the United States naval authorities have a Marine Corps rifle range and training ground, is to be much improved in the coming summer, and when improved will be a more convenient steamboat landing. It is stated the pier is to be brought out thirty feet to deep water, so that the larger steamships can land at it if necessary. In addition it is to have a sixty-foot front and is to be strengthened and otherwise improved.

Winthrop is on the schedule of the steamers of the Potomac and Chesapeake Company, and daily lines are made to carry supplies of all kinds to the naval force stationed there. During the coming summer the company's operations will go to Winthrop for target practice.

TO NOMINATE TOMORROW.

Takoma Park Citizens Will Caucus for Mayor and Councilmen.

A caucus will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the chapel of the Takoma Presbyterian Church, Takoma Park, Md., when the qualified voters of the town will nominate a candidate for mayor and councilmen.

The terms of Mayor S. W. Williams and Councilmen L. R. Grubb, H. F. Taff and E. S. La Fetra expire May 1, all having served terms of two years each. The new officials will enter upon their duties June 1.

The election will be held on Monday, May 1, the polls being open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. The judges of election will be L. M. Moores, S. K. Ryle and F. W. Longley.

Unappreciative Man

"My husband," sighed the weeping wife, "has made a ruin of my life. He does not seem to yearn or long for Higher Things, like Art and Song. The sordid things to him appeal; he'd rather have a good square meal, than sit with me through dreamful days, reciting Robert Browning's lays. A noble painting on the wall makes no appeal to him at all; with scorn he'll pass the picture by, and say he'd rather have a pie. Because the bread is always hard, because his porthouse is charred, because the coffee's weak and thin, he'll make a most unseemly din. He can't be made to realize that noble odes beat oyster fries, that Ibsen's pen, surcharged with ink, surpasses sausage in the link; that Handel's grand harmonic burst beats schweitzer cheese or liverwurst. So here I sit upon the floor, and weep and wail for evermore."

BODY OF MRS. SUPPLEE FOUND NEAR CITY POINT

Double Funeral to Be Held at Wheatley's Chapel, Alexandria, Tomorrow Afternoon.

The body of Mrs. Florence Louise Gore, who, with her husband, Dr. Eugene D. Supplee, was drowned in the James river, near City Point, Va., the afternoon of April 2, was found yesterday. The body of Mrs. Supplee was found Thursday. The body of Mrs. Supplee was forwarded to Richmond and the two bodies are to be sent to Alexandria, Va., where a double funeral is to be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Wheatley's chapel.

The body of Mrs. Supplee was found in the Appomattox river near City Point. It is presumed that following the drowning of Dr. Supplee and his wife, when their canoe upset, their bodies were carried down the James river by the current and that the tide had carried the body of Mrs. Supplee back up in the Appomattox.

ALONG THE RIVER FRONT.

Schooner S. L. Bowen, cord wood from a lower Potomac point for the lumber dealers, flattie B. T. Boyer, master, shells from a Chesapeake bay point, at Alexandria for the crushing plant; steamer Newport News, from Norfolk and Old Point to the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company; steamer Majestic, from Lower Machodoc and Nomini creeks to the Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company; schooner Three Rivers, from Baltimore and Potomac landings to the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company; schooner Carrie Revell, cord wood from Nanjemoy creek, Md., at 10th street wharf for L. A. Clarke & Son.

Tugs and Tows.

Memoranda.

Schooner H. J. Marsh has sailed from Nomini for Alexandria with pulp wood for shipment to West Virginia paper-making plants; schooner S. Sawyer is in Curriemore bay to load pulp wood for Baltimore; powerboat Virginia is in Nomini creek en route to Point Lookout to load ahead and herring for the market here; schooner J. P. Robinson is due to sail from Upper Machodoc creek for this city with cord wood for dealers; schooner Elizabeth Carter is at a Potomac point to load cord wood for the market here; schooner May and Anna Newick is chartered to load lumber at Newbern, N. C., for this market.

PLANS FOR ENTERTAINING VISITING D. A. R. MEMBERS

Congressional Suffragists' Union to Give Series of Teas, Luncheons and Receptions.

In line with the plans of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage to keep "open house" at the national headquarters here during the present week for the benefit of the delegates to the D. A. R. convention, a series of teas, luncheons and receptions are being arranged in honor of the out-of-town members of the union who also belong to the D. A. R.

Among the prominent members of both organizations now visiting the National Capital are Mrs. William Cummings, National Story of New York, president general; Mrs. Helena Hill Weed of Connecticut, former vice president general; Mrs. Henry Mann of Virginia, former vice president general; Mrs. Edward Orton of Columbus, Ohio, former vice president general; Mrs. Emma Fox of Detroit, parliamentarian, and Miss Florence Finch of New York, business manager of the D. A. R. Magazine.

Voters' Convention Proposed.

Plans for the big Chicago woman voters' convention, June 5, 6 and 7, when the members of the newly launched woman's party will gather to discuss the best means of utilizing the 4,000,000 votes in the west, are being rapidly completed. Headquarters have been established in the Stevens building on State street. The suggestion has been made that a lake steamer be chartered to house the women who attend this convention and thus offset the crowded condition of Chicago's hotels.

CARGOES FOR INDIAN HEAD.

Coal Shipments for Powder Mill and Other Plants Resumed.

Shipments of coal from Georgetown to Indian Head, where it is stored at the tipple on the Mattawoman creek side of the reservation for the use of the big powder making mill and other naval plants, have been resumed.

The tug Edith Goddard Winship with two coal laden boats in tow made several trips to the plant in the past week. On these trips loaded boats are taken to the unloading point and light boats brought back to Georgetown to be sent back up the canal after other loads of coal.

Between now and the close of the coal shipping season next fall more than a thousand tons of coal will be taken to Indian Head. When the shipping season is over the tug will be stored there coal enough to last the plant through the winter.

PREPARES EASTER PROGRAM.

Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe Plans Services, Though Ill in Hospital.

Although still confined to a bed in Garfield Hospital recovering from a serious illness, Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe has prepared the program for the Easter services at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, of which he is pastor. The program will be completed in time for announcement later in the week. Rev. Dr. F. W. Loetscher of Princeton Theological Seminary conducted the Palm Sunday services in Rev. Dr. Radcliffe's church yesterday.

The program for holy week at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church is to consist of services conducted by several substitute speakers. Rev. Wilfred W. Shaw of Baltimore is to speak tonight on "What Manner of Man Is This?" tomorrow night on "Faith as Seen in a Life," and Wednesday night on "Christians, What Are They?" Dr. Bates is to speak Friday night on "The Lord's Supper and why we will have no services Saturday. Rev. Dr. R. Ritchie Smith of Princeton Seminary is to speak Sunday morning on "Now Is Christ Risen from the Dead," and on "Easter Praise" in the evening.

ROBBERIES REPORTED.

Edward Mears Loses Diamond Ring.

Activity of Burglars.

Edward Mears, owner on the steamer Southland, reported to the police the theft of a diamond ring valued at $50 and a watch and chain worth $20. The theft was committed aboard the steamer yesterday morning, he said.

Burglars this morning about 1 o'clock gained entrance to the Maury School building, 12th place and B street northwest, and ransacked a number of desks. It is probable that they got very little plunder.

Moses Goldberg, 627 D street northwest, told the police of the loss of a gold watch and fob. The theft, he stated, was committed at his home yesterday.

Frank McManany, 325 Huntington street northwest, reported that burglars visited his house yesterday afternoon and stole between $15 and $20.

MANY "STUNTS" PLANNED.

Board of Trade Shad Bake Will Be the "Greatest Ever."

The annual shad bake of the Board of Trade will be held at Chesapeake Beach May 29 is to be the greatest outing ever held by the organization, judging from reports which were received from subcommittees of the general arrangements committee in charge of the affair, which held a meeting Saturday night. There are to be more "stunts" than before, more soups, more for distribution and a planked dinner that will exceed all previous feasts of the organization. It is stated.

Arrangements for the outing are well under way, although it is more than a month off, and the 1,400 members of the board are looking forward with great interest to the event.
